For the attention of the Chief Minister of Gibraltar Mr Fabian Picardo

Dear Sir,

I am writing to you in my name and in the name of the French citizens of Gibraltar, to thank you, your Government and the great People of Gibraltar for all your support after the terrorist attacks in Paris on Friday the 13th of this month.

You have been with us since it happened, and to this day I still receive messages of sympathy from people of Gibraltar. The saying: it is when you suffer that you see your real friends, is true.

I have immediately reported to London, to our General Consulate and Embassy, your kind words for France, and everything that had been organised to show your support; contacts with me, the French colors on the Moorish Castle and the two minutes silence.

I can also confirm that I have sent your letter of condolences to our President, Monsieur François Hollande, letter that was delivered today at his address.

I wish Gibraltar the very best and I do hope that such terrible moments never happen in such a beautiful place.

Warmest regards.

Bien Amicalement,

Pierre Fayaud
Consul Honoraire de France à Gibraltar
